By the act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1879, and for other purposes.

PUBLIC PRINTING AND BINDING.

For the public printing, for the public binding, and for paper for the public printing, including the cost of printing the debates and proceedings of Congress in the Congressional Record, and for lithographing, mapping, and engraving for both houses of Congress, the Supreme Court, the Court of Claims, and the departments, and for the necessary materials or articles which may be needed in the prosecution of the work. . . . $1,200,000 00

And out of the sum hereby appropriated, printing and binding may be done by the Public Printer to the amounts following, namely: For printing and binding for the State Department, $17,000; for the Treasury Department, $212,000; for the War Department, $74,000; for the Navy Department, $53,000; for the Interior Department, $151,000; for the Agricultural Department, $11,000; for the Department of Justice, $7,000; for the supreme court of the District of Columbia, $1,000; for the Post-Office, $111,000; for the Congressional Library, $19,000; for the Supreme Court of the United States, $20,000; for the Court of Claims, $10,000; and for printing and binding for Congress, including the proceedings and debates of Congress, $516,000. And hereafter no binding shall be done for any department of the government except in plain sheep or cloth, and no books shall be printed and bound except when the same shall be ordered by Congress or are authorized by law, except record and account books which may be bound in Russia leather sheep fleshers and skivers, when authorized by the head of a department, and this restriction shall not apply to the Congressional Library. And when any department shall require printing to be done the Public Printer shall furnish to such department an estimate of the cost by the principal items for said printing so called for; and he shall place to the debit of such department the cost of the same, on certification of the head of the department, Supreme Court, Court of Claims, or Library of Congress, that said printing is necessary; and the Public Printer is hereby authorized to employ three additional clerks of the third class, to make the estimates.

That the sum of $13,000, being the unexpended balance of the sum appropriated by act approved December 15, 1877, for printing and binding for the Library of Congress, be, and the same is hereby, reappropriated, and may be expended for completing the new general catalogue of the Library, now in progress. . . . 13,000 00

Government Printing Office: For the construction of outside fire-escape ladders for the Government Printing Office. . . . 3,000 00

To enable the Public Printer to pay for the telephonic wire connecting the Capitol with the Government Printing Office, and for the rent of the telephones. . . . 150 00

To purchase, of the present owners and proprietors, the following property, to wit:

Twenty-five thousand bound volumes of the Congressional Globe, forty thousand unbound volumes of the Congressional Globe, forty-six thousand metal plates for printing the Congressional Globe, twenty-four thousand composition plates for printing the Congressional Globe, the two-story fire-proof brick building situate in the rear of the Globe building on Pennsylvania avenue, and the copyright for the complete work: Provided, That the Public Printer, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall examine the said property, and shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury that it is in good order and in accordance with the schedule submitted, before any of said money shall be paid: And provided further, That said property, when purchased by the United States, shall be placed in the custody of the Public Printer, under the direction of the Joint Committee on Public Printing; and that the title to said property shall be approved by the Attorney-General. . . . 100,000 00

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

For the general expenses of the District of Columbia, to be disbursed by the Commissioners of said District for the purposes set forth in their estimates of January 21, 1878, as amended June 4, 1878. . . . 1,250,000 00

To be credited to the United States on its proportion of the expenses of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1879, under the act approved June 11, 1878, out of which said sum the Commissioners shall expend the following, namely: on account of the Reform School of the District of Columbia, one-half of the expenses for the inmates and for other expenses, a sum not exceeding $10,000; on account of the Columbia Hospital for Women and Lying-in Asylum, a sum not exceeding $12,000; to aid in the support of the Children's Hospital of Washington, a sum not exceeding $5,000; and may also in their discretion expend not exceeding $10,000 to be applied in payment of the building already erected by the board of directors of the Children's Hospital, and shall purchase, at a cost of not exceeding $48,000, two additional fire-engines, and one hook and ladder, including lands, buildings, and equipments complete for two companies, as recommended by the Board of Fire Commissioners of said District. And they may, in their discretion, donate a sum not exceeding $5,000 in either case to the Saint Ann's Infant Asylum, to the Industrial Home School, and to the National Association for the Relief of the Colored Women and Children of the District of Columbia; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have power to assess and collect the taxes for the fiscal year 1879 upon the basis of their estimates submitted to Congress, bearing date January 21, 1878, as amended June 4, 1878.

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to advance, from the money hereby appropriated, to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, from time to time, such sums as, in his judgment, may be necessary to carry on the government of said District, including accruing interest upon the bonds of the District. And the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to issue properly prepared bonds of said District to the amount of $281,750 for the redemption of the ten-year bonds issued by the corporation of Washington under an act of Congress approved February 27, 1868, amounting to $279,250; also, to redeem the Georgetown steam force-pump bonds, amounting to $2,500, issued under the act of the general assembly of July 26, 1873.

Said bonds shall be payable thirty years after date in sums of $1,000 each, and bearing such rate of interest, not exceeding per cent., as shall be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to be sold to the highest bidder upon public tender, after being advertised for at least one month, the bids to be opened in the presence of the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by him.
And the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to fix the salaries to be paid to the officers and privates of the metropolitan police until otherwise provided by law; and to require the Washington Gas-light Company to light the city lamps at such price as shall to the said Commissioners appear to be just and reasonable. And all expenses heretofore incurred by the general government for the board of health, for the metropolitan police, and for gas inspection, shall hereafter be a charge upon the government of the District.
For the support of the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, Washington City, District of Columbia, including salaries and incidental expenses, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, there is hereby reappropriated the unexpended balance which may remain of the appropriation of $10,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1878: Provided , That the institution shall be closed up and discontinued during the ensuing fiscal year, and the title to the property, real and personal, shall be conveyed to the United States before any further payments are made to the trustees of the said institution.
That a sum not exceeding $75,000 be appropriated to pay the workmen employed in the public improvements under the late board of public works of the District of Columbia, or the contractors of the same, whose claims for work and labor are due and unpaid from contractors whose accounts against the government of the District of Columbia had been paid prior to the passage of the act of June 23, 1874, entitled "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, and for other purposes": Provided , That such claims shall be severally audited and paid by the proper accounting and disbursing officers of the Treasury, and that the amount found to be due to each workman shall only be paid to him in person if living, or, in case of non-residents of the District of Columbia, by draft on the Treasury of the United States to his or their order, or to his legal representatives if dead: And provided further , That if said sum of $75,000 shall not be sufficient to pay all such claims filed prior to 1st day of December next in full, then there shall be made the required pro rata deduction on each claim, and the amount to be paid on each claim shall be paid and received in full discharge of the claim of such workman: Provided further , That no such claims shall be received or audited by the accounting-officers of the Treasury subsequent to the 1st day of December, 1873, and that one-half the whole amount paid under this paragraph shall be paid by the United States and one-half shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia other than that portion which is derived from the United States.	Indefinite.

II.—NEW OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

[Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.]

By the act (No. 16) to authorize the coinage of the standard silver dollar and to restore its legal-tender character.

The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, is authorized to appoint three commissioners on behalf of the United States to attend a proposed conference between certain European nations and the United States for the purpose of adopting a common ratio between gold and silver, establishing internationally the use of bi-metallic money, and securing fixity of value between those metals.

Said commissioners each to receive $2,500 and their reasonable expenses, to be approved by the Secretary of State.

By the act (No. 41) to prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the United States.

The Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service is charged with the execution of the act, and medical officers of the Marine Hospital Service and customs officers are required to aid in the enforcement of the national quarantine rules and regulations established by said act, but without additional compensation except actual and necessary traveling expenses.

Officers and agents of any State or municipal quarantine system, at any port of the United States, shall, upon application of the respective State or municipal authorities, be authorized and empowered to act as officers or agents of the national quarantine system and shall be clothed with all the powers of United States officers for quarantine purposes, but shall receive no pay or emoluments from the United States.

By the act (No. 49) authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to employ temporary clerks, and making an appropriation for the same; also making appropriations for detecting trespass on public lands, and for bringing into market public lands in certain States, and for other purposes.

The Secretary of War is authorized to employ in the record and pension division of the Surgeon-General's office during the balance of the present fiscal year, clerks and laborers in addition to the clerical force already provided by law:

One clerk of class four, one clerk of class three, two clerks of class two, twenty-eight clerks of class one, and two laborers at $720 each.

By the act (No. 55) making appropriations for the naval service for the year ending June 30, 1879, and for other purposes.

At the Naval Asylum, Philadelphia, Pa.: One assistant cook and one laundress, at $168 each.

Marine Corps: The sum of $10,000 is appropriated for ten clerks and two messengers, but no specific salaries are established.

Naval Academy: One attendant at recitation rooms, at $20 per month.

Pay of employes in the department of steam enginery: For master machinist, boiler-maker, and pattern-maker, at $3.50 per day each; one machinist, one blacksmith, one moulder, at $2.50 per diem each; and two laborers, at $1.50 per diem each.

By the act (No. 63) making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian Department, and for fulfilling treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes, for the year ending June 30, 1879, and for other purposes.

Agents of Indian Affairs: At the Nevada agency and at the Western Shoshone agency, at $1,800 each per annum; and at the Gros Ventres agency, at $1,000 per annum.

Interpreters: One additional for Nevada, namely, Western Shoshone agency, at $300 per annum; one additional for the Gros Ventres in Montana, at $300 per annum; one additional for the tribes in the Indian Territory, to be assigned as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, at $300 per annum.

Out of appropriations for contingencies of the Indian service, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby, at his discretion, authorized to employ two special Indian agents at large, at a compensation not exceeding $2,000 each per annum.

Pay of Indian police: For the services of not exceeding four hundred and thirty privates, at $5 per month each, and not exceeding fifty officers, at $8 per month each, of Indian police, to be employed in maintaining order and prohibiting illegal traffic in liquor on the several Indian reservations.

By the act (No. 76) regulating the appointment of justices of the peace, commissioners of deeds, and constables within and for the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

The President of the United States is authorized to appoint as many commissioners of deeds throughout the United States as he may deem necessary, and as many notaries public, residents of the District of Columbia, as in his discretion the business of the said District may require.

By the act (No. 79) to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to constitute superintendents of mints or assayers in assay-offices assistant treasurers of the United States.
